

Ballot Law Changes Are Wanted Now

Civic Bodies Start Agitation To Permit Of Intelligent Voting

Alarmed at the size of the ballots that will confront the voters of California at the primary and general elections this year, civic organizations throughout the state have begun an agitation for a change in the elections system. Undoubtedly this will be an important subject before the Legislature that will be elected this Fall. Obviously the purpose in starting the campaign for a more simple system at this time is to provoke discussion of the subject with the idea of developing features of an act or acts that will meet the situation.

The names of 1200 persons will appear on the ballot in Los Angeles county at next month's primary election. That, of course, is many more than voters elsewhere in the State will have to contend with. But they will have their troubles everywhere. It is held that only the very exceptional voter is intelligent enough and sufficiently well informed to wade through such a huge list of names and mark his ballot in the very best interests of the community, especially in the comparatively short time one ordinarily gives to this important duty of citizenship.

System All Wrong

Opponents of a system that imposes such a duty on the voter point out that the most important offices in the State and many of those of greatest importance in the carrying on of the county government are included in the list to be filled by necessarily haphazard marking of crosses by the elector. It is contended that a Governor, State Treasurer, Sheriff of a county, property assessor, judges of the courts and other highly important officials should not be selected in what must necessarily be more or less of a lottery.

Several civic organizations that have appointed committees to study the election laws of other states already incline to the opinion that the whole election system should be changed so that State and county officials shall not be chosen in the same year; that in the even numbered years one set of officials should be elected and in the odd numbered years another set and that, in no case, should local officials, excepting members of Congress and the Legislature, be chosen in the years in which there is a Presidential election.

General Election Worse

This suggestion will undoubtedly open up a wide discussion and lots of opposition by those who

WOMEN OF AUXILIARY ELECT DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Blanche Buie, Mrs. Louise Roe, and Mrs. Lela Embree were elected as delegates to the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary convention to be held in Sacramento from August 17 to August 20th. Mrs. Agnes Tyree, Mrs. Maybelle Barker and Mrs. Elva Raavis were elected alternates.

The local Legion post will elect six delegates at its meeting on Monday night.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE SEES WISTARIA SOUVENIR AS GREAT BOOST FOR SIERRA MADRE

A National magazine of great influence devoted to the criticism and upbuilding of newspapers, thought well of the Wistaria number of THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS, both as a journalistic enterprise and as a booster for the city in which it was published. In the current issue of that journal, M. H. Cantwell writes of the Wistaria number as follows:

"A recent issue of the Sierra Madre News, published by L. R. Goshorn out in Los Angeles county, California, contained a very interesting supplement consisting of eight pages of rotogravure with photographs of the surrounding territory and beautiful buildings.

"It was indeed a very creditable booster feature for Sierra Madre, and was of particular interest to the writer due to the fact that Mr. Goshorn is an old newspaper man from Pittsburgh where he is remembered as just plain 'Larry.'

Clagstone Will Analyze Business Conditions Here

Paul Clagstone, manager of the Western division of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, is to address a joint meeting of the Kiwanis club and the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday noon at the Woman's Club. He will discuss business conditions in the country in the critical period through which the Nation has just passed and the effect of legislation enacted by the present Congress upon the situation.

Boat Afire, Girls Jump Into Bay

Narrowly escaping death when the speed boat Miss Balboa III caught fire and sank 300 yards off the shore of Newport Bay on Wednesday night, Frances and Elizabeth Glidden, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Glidden of this city, donned life preservers and leaped from the speeding vessel into the bay. They were picked up by another speedboat, the Miss Newport, manned by Frank Brocker, Newport Fire Chief.

The other occupants of the boat were J. Hartley Baty, 20, of Los Angeles, and A. K. Vandemark, owner of the speedboat.

The boat was returning to the harbor when it burst into flames without warning. Vandemark raced for shore but when he saw the boat could not make it he shouted to his passengers to jump. There were no injuries. Mr. and Mrs. Glidden left for Newport immediately on receipt of word of the harrowing experience of their daughters. Announcement of the happening was made over the radio and many friends here were apprehensive until word came back from the parents that they were in good health.

Pronounce City Free Of Fire Hazard

Wins Government A-1 Rating In Safety During Dry Season

Through the co-operation of its citizens and the efficiency of its engineering department, Sierra Madre is pronounced singularly free of the fire hazard that comes annually with the long dry spell. The task of clearing the city and its canyons of weeds, brush and inflammable debris, begun a month ago, has been completed and the community is given an A-1 rating in safety by the Federal forestry service with the clearing of the last of the vacant lots and the completion of a 25-foot fire break along the North-easterly boundary yesterday.

The fire break was established jointly by the city and the real estate firm of Andrews and Hawks, owners and agents for large acreage high on the mountain side in the Northwestern section of the city. This job has met with the complete approval of the forestry department in the matter of preventing the spread of a forest fire, both for the protection of the city should a fire originate in the forest and for the forest in the event of a fire in the city.

At the outset of the campaign to make the city safe the engineering department posted 1565 parcels of real estate as containing fire hazards, most of them vacant lots. The owners of 691 or 44 per cent of these lots disregarded the notice served by the city demanding that they be cleaned up. Whereupon gangs of workmen employed by the city moved in and did the job by plowing, burning or hoeing. The majority, or 56 per cent of the owners of condemned properties, had the work done themselves.

It cost the city $3,646.18 to do the work that property owners themselves failed to do, or an average of $5.25 per lot against a charge of $6 a lot last year. The cost to the citizen was somewhat greater than though they had had the work done themselves, but was five per cent below the cost of similar work done this year by the city of Monrovia. The cost will be added to next year's tax bills.

Establishment of the fire break was carried on under the supervision of Forest Ranger V. P. Vetter and his assistant, Robert Bloomberg. They also kept a watchful eye on the work done within the city limits but found no occasion to either interfere or suggest.

Candidates To Meet In A Prize Ring

Aspirants For Governor To Go Through The Ropes At The Olympic

What is expected to be the biggest political rally ever staged in Southern California will be held at the Olympic Auditorium, Los Angeles next Thursday night by the All Veterans' League, an organization of ex-service men of which Mayor Albert S. Myers, of this city, is National Commander. The three leading Republican gubernatorial aspirants, Fitts, Rolph and Young, and the Democratic candidate, Milton K. Young, who has also filed as a Republican, are to speak from the Olympic ring in which most of the great fist and wrestling events in Southern California are staged. Since the gubernatorial fight has become one of personal attack it may develop that the prize ring is well adapted to the joint appearance of the candidates.

It is the only time during the campaign that the candidates will appear together. Several other attempts have been made to bring them together under the same roof at the same time, if not in the ring, but all have fallen through. The Pasadena Republican club believed it had arranged for the presence of all of them at a meeting in the Gold Shell, but Governor Young found it impossible to be present and Mayor Rolph was unable to give definite assurance of his presence while the matter was under consideration, so the thing was called off.

In addition to the stars of the political firmament the Olympic gathering is to bring together the greatest galaxy of movie stars and celebrities ever assembled.

Its Government To Cost Pasadena $65.77 Per Capita

It costs money to live in Pasadena. The per capita cost of maintaining the city departments on the budget for the current year which is now ready for submission to the trustees, is $65.77. This is a jump from the $60.55 figure for the fiscal year ending June 30. This, of course, is aside from assessments for improvements and incidentals and provides only for the ordinary maintenance costs. Tentative expenditures of $2,505,000 are provided in the budget. Among new features it is planned to cover are two new branch libraries, a new fire station, eight new firemen and five more policemen; no salaries are to be increased. But the new enlargements are not out of reason with the city's phenomenal growth. The census figures indicate them to be most conservative.

Big Gain In Real Estate Shows Trend

Returning Confidence Greatly Increases Transfers In County

Over 25 per cent of the incorporated cities in Los Angeles County showed exceptional activity in volume of real estate transfers last month, compared with July 1929, according to the California Title Insurance company. This activity was not confined to any one district, but was fairly well distributed throughout the county. Fourteen of the 41 cities included in this survey showed a gain last month in the volume of transfers compared with May 1930.

The local realty market showed an increase of 21.95 per cent in the volume of June transfers over those for May. Twenty-three deeds, four mortgages and 14 trust deeds were filed last month affecting local real estate, compared with 19 deeds, six mortgages and five trust deeds filed during May.

Nineteen new subdivisions, containing 517 lots, were placed on the market during June. This brings the total number of new subdivisions opened in the county so far this year up to 111, embracing 7497 parcels of land.

The largest subdivision of the month was opened north of Santa Monica, and contained 122 lots. Second in size was a 104-lot tract located in the vicinity of La Crescenta, while a new tract of 96 parcels near Culver City was third.

Some Cooler Over Week-end, But Not Much Says Hersey

Col. Hersey turned a wary eye on the thermometer at the Sierra Madre weather observatory as he prepared to make his week-end prediction.

"It will be cooler tomorrow and Sunday than it has been all week," he said, "although the temperature will be well above normal."

"The present condition caused by inland high pressure areas is sluggish and slow in changing, but it is not to be expected that the present high temperature will continue long."

Local residents may console themselves with the fact that a third of the average number of hot days that mark the summers here are already past. The average number of days the mercury reaches 95 is twenty. This figure is taken from a study covering the last 44 years. Last year was far above the average, there being 44 days when the temperature reached 95. The hottest weather over the last twenty-two year period has been in August and September.

TAXPAYERS PROTEST

Opening their session at 8 o'clock Monday morning, the county board of supervisors began their second week as a board of equalization sitting to hear protests on alleged improper assessment of property lying within the county. During the first week of their annual two-week session as an equalization body, the supervisors heard 639 complaints.

A total of 1,980,000 pleasure car license plates to cost 13 1/2 cents per pair, have been ordered for 1931 in California.

Get City At Its Best For Flower Show

Appeal Made To Citizens To Prepare For Big Fall Festival

An appeal has been issued to the people of Sierra Madre to begin now the preparation of the specimens they will enter in the Fall Flower Festival and especially to give heed to the gardens that will enter into the small garden competition, which is to be an outstanding feature of the Festival.

Information obtainable now as to the number of gardens to be entered indicate that there will be upwards of a hundred of them. A thoroughly unbiased board of judges will pass upon the merits of the various entries early in the Festival and make its awards. Thereafter the prize gardens and those receiving honorable mention will be included in a garden tour to be arranged for the city's visitors during the fete and which will give them an idea of the loveliness of Sierra Madre and its great desirability as a home city.

Mrs. George Lehner, who has been appointed chairman of the committee under whose direction the potted plant and bulb section of the flower show will be arranged, has appealed to members of the Woman's Club to get their plants and bulbs ready. Those who have potted plants, bulbs or clippings to contribute to the show have been requested to communicate with her by telephone at Black 94 or to take them directly to her home, 550 West Central avenue, where they will be looked after until immediately before the show, which is to be held in October.

This does not apply merely to members of the Woman's Club since the Flower show is to be a community affair in the broadest sense. By resolution of the various memberships the Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, the American Legion and Merchants' Association have pledged their co-operation to the utmost.

A bulletin now in course of preparation advises amateur gardeners and householders that pansies, snapdragons and stocks planted now and properly cared for, will be ready for the flower show. Also it is suggested that special care and attention be given the dahlias and chrysanthemums that will make the gardens brilliant and contribute in a big way to the success of the cut flower exhibits. They will be at their best at the time of the Festival.

Park Music Programs To Go Right On

Council Committee Comes To Rescue With Guarantee Of Funds

Confidence in the civic importance of the Friday night entertainment and dances in the city park sponsored by the chamber of commerce with the cooperation of the Legion and Auxiliary was expressed by the city council when Councilmen Layton and Lees, of the Park Committee, pledged further aid to the extent of $100 to the future dances.

This definite step was taken at a special directors' meeting of the chamber of commerce with representatives from the Legion, the Auxiliary, and the City Council present Wednesday evening. Miss Laura E. Cadmus reported the spending of $73.07 to date on two dances. This sum included the prizes given the winners of children's races on the Fourth and for incidental expenses during the celebration. Councilman Layton commended the chamber of commerce, and particularly President Davies, R. C. Copenhaver, and Miss Cadmus, the committee on arrangements, for their interest in the dances.

Mr. Davies, in behalf of the chamber, expressed his appreciation of the work of the American Legion and the Woman's Auxiliary.

Hostesses serving at the first two dances included Mrs. William Roe, Mrs. Arthur Embree, Mrs. Vincent Fleming, Mrs. Charles Taylor, and Mrs. Blanche Buie. A capable master of ceremonies for the dances has been found in P. Lass, local legionnaire with considerable experience along this

WATER CARNIVAL TO END LEARN-TO-SWIM CAMPAIGN AT POOL

GLADYS BOEHMER
Former Pacific Coast Champion Woman Swimmer

Program Of Events For Tonight's Big Water Carnival

The program for the big free water carnival at Canyon Pool tomorrow night marking the close of the learn-to-swim campaign will furnish entertainment and amusement for all. Exhibitions in swimming and diving will be given by several noted swimmers and divers, including George Hughling, Red Cross instructor and Gladys Boehmer, local girl who held the Pacific Coast woman's swimming championship for three years, and who is featured in several moving pictures diving into the Pacific from aeroplanes.

A beauty show in which young ladies of the city will be designated by the names of the streets on which they live and which will be carried through on the order of the Nation-wide and sectional beauty contests at the leading resorts.

The program includes a demonstration of resuscitation by class members, a swimmers' demonstration and swim test for Red Cross badge, a life-saving contest in which junior and senior medals will be awarded, beginners swim demonstration for Red Cross badge, boys' and girls' balloon races, an open egg and spoon race, open night gown team race, open free style championship race, junior and senior diving events, life-saving contest for Red Cross medal, diving for plates, water melon polo, and an open 100-penny duck diving scramble.

An amusing feature of the entertainment will be a comedy life-saving act by two local boys.

"Brad" Payne of Arcadia will help live the program with a novelty clown act. He uses a 25-foot ladder and promises a number of surprises.

The beauty show will have entries representing the different streets in this city. "Miss Central Avenue" will wear a black and white bathing suit.

"I will win easily on my shape and looks," confidently asserts Miss Lima Street.

Layton Gets Pledge Of Ex-Service Men

All Veterans League Gives Local Candidate Its Endorsement

Unanimous endorsement was given the candidacy of Councilman Lester K. Layton for the Republican Assembly nomination in the new 53rd district at a meeting of the Sierra Madre division of the All Veterans League at the City Hall here last Monday night.

The gathering attracted a number of candidates for other local and county offices and several of them were accorded the privilege of addressing the ex-service men, but no endorsements other than that of Layton were made. Short addresses were made by Col. Robert E. Frith of Monrovia, candidate for Supervisor from the first district; Dean Evans, of Monrovia, candidate for Superior court No. 5; Police Chief Charles Kelly, of Pasadena, candidate for the Republican nomination for Sheriff and Walter S. McEachern, of Pasadena, candidate for Sheriff.

Hundreds Take Instruction With Women Learning Classes

A big, worthwhile water carnival in the Canyon Park swimming pool will bring Sierra Madre's "Swim-in-Safety" campaign, sponsored by The SIERRA MADRE NEWS and the local chapter of The Red Cross to a close tomorrow night.

The dense foliage of the beautiful Sierra Madre canyon will be lighted up and the water of the pool will glisten under the brilliant rays of huge arc and klieg lights as amateur and professional swimmers and divers give exhibitions, race, play games and clown in the clear blue water of the mountains.

From Mountain Trail avenue through Sturtevant Trail the whole canyon will be gaily decorated for the occasion with flags and lanterns. Ample free parking facilities have been provided for automobiles under the supervision of the city police and seating arrangements have been made to care for a crowd of several hundred people about the pool.

Purpose of Campaign
The swim-in-safety campaign, designed to teach the younger generation how to take care of itself in the water, to get real enjoyment out of swimming in the interest of health and to be able to render assistance to others in emergencies was by far the most successful event of its kind ever attempted here.

George Hughling, crack swimmer and instructor of the American Red Cross staff who was sent to Sierra Madre from the University of California at Berkeley to conduct the campaign, estimates that when it closes tomorrow 300 young persons will have learned to swim and that half as many more who were barely able to swim will have qualified to the extent of confidence if not as experts.

The largest attendance on any single day of the week so far was on Wednesday when more than 200 presented their certificates and took to the water. The uncommonly warm weather, tempering the water to their liking, made conditions ideal for beginners.

For the older children and the mature swimmers Hughling is devoting considerable attention to instruction in life saving in the water. His course shows the amateur swimmer how to improve their strokes and conserve their strength and wind when in difficulties.

Women Take Interest

Of the swimmers above 15 years of age who have availed themselves of the course of instruction so far this week, a large percentage are girls and young women and Hughling says there are now a surprisingly large number of good swimmers among the younger women here.

"The school has been a success in every sense of the word," said Hughling last night, "and I have had splendid co-operation by the people. The interest that has been shown is quite remarkable. One young lady, Jewel MacKenzie, came all the way from Imperial Valley to take examiner's work. She is helping me with instruction and learning more herself."

"I have noticed a general and very laudable interest on the part of the women in the life-saving classes. I can't stress how important this work is."

"Another very vital point in life-saving is resuscitation, in which we are giving special instruction in the hope of equipping our pupils to save lives."

An overhead spray now arches streams of water into the clear pool. The effect of the sunlight on the spray will be to warm it, eliminating the first chill which cold water gives the swimmer.

Although tomorrow evening's water sports mark the end of Red Cross instruction at the pool, swimming lessons will be given for the remainder of the summer by Dudley E. Shaw, who may be reached for information and appointments at Black 70 or at the pool.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO HAVE POT LUCK SUPPER

A pot-luck supper is planned by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary for next Thursday evening at 6:30, in the Legion Hall in the basement of the City Hall. Each family is requested to bring one dish of food. The supper will cost adults 25 cents and children 10 cents. Everyone is welcome.

Erection of a $5,000,000 soap plant has been started at Long Beach by one of the largest soap making concerns in the world.

Still hale and hearty, J. J. Aschenbrenner of Covina celebrated his 97th birthday last week. A big party was staged in his honor.

Stylish clothes may be worn now by the young people of the Dunkers church in Glendora, but they may not bob their hair, according to W. K. Conner, pastor of the church.

Voters of the Crescenta school district passed a bill increasing the district tax 15 cents for school purposes. As the district board was able to lower the building rate, the annual taxes remain the same.

San Marino's Council is debating whether it might establish "a dangerous precedent" in granting a permit for a miniature golf course on Mission street near Los Robles, though the location was said to be one that would cause no annoyance to the residents.

The Fourth of July week-end established a new record for motor traffic into the San Jacinto mountains. Careful count made by the forest service revealed that 1089 cars carried 3479 people into the mountains July 3 and 4.

San Bernardino's horticultural commission after inquiring into the June drop of young fruit, estimates the orange crop of 90 per cent, with the Redlands and Chino districts producing 100 per cent. Upland, Ontario, Colton, Grand Terrace and Cucamonga are estimated at 80 per cent. There was an uncommonly heavy bloom.

Bonnie Jean Gray, nationally famous horsewoman, achieved her lifelong ambition to be married in the saddle at an unusual wedding ceremony at Burbank. The Rev. Earl W. Dorrance, astride a roan horse, united her with Donald W. Harris of Burbank, also on horseback. A wedding party of 100, all mounted, attended.

Initial contracts have been awarded for construction of the $675,000 highway connecting Elsinor and San Juan Capistrano—giving Riverside county an outlet to the sea. The high gear road, which will traverse the Santa Ana mountain range and be completed within ten months, will be paid for by Riverside and Orange counties and the state.

Final stones in the pathway to the acquisition of 35,000 acres above Idyllwild in the San Jacinto mountains for the San Jacinto Mountain State Park were removed last Wednesday when the Southern Pacific agreed to relinquish title to all of its San Jacinto mountain lands in exchange for national forest acreage elsewhere.

Great Joy In Forecast Of State Crops

Prosperity Bound To Follow Bumper Production Here

California's soil will yield abundantly this year—far in excess of 1929 the State Department of Agriculture announced this week following a survey of the probable fruit and field crop production.

There will be an increase of 1,236,000 bushels of wheat, with a crop of 13,568,000 bushels; and an increase of 491,000 bushels of barley with a yield of 29,854,000 bushels. With an expected yield of 78 per cent, the prune crop will jump from 103,000 tons last year to 234,000 tons.

The only sour note in the report concerns three of the field crops, rice, hay and alfalfa, production of which will fall below 1929 and walnuts. Here is the department estimate of the various items in the field crops:

Beans, 5,533,000 bushels; increase 458,000 bushels. Rice, 5,940,000 bushels; decrease of 139,000 bushels. Hay, 5,130,000 tons; decrease 58,000 tons. Potatoes, 5,320,000 bushels; increase 70,000 bushels. Oats, 4,938,000 bushels; increase 491,000 bushels. Alfalfa, 4,040,000 tons; decrease 135,000 tons. Corn, 2,795,000 bushels; increase 234,000 bushels. Sweet potatoes, 1,224,000 bushels; increase 234,000 bushels.

Apples—Crop condition 79 per cent of normal; total production of 11,218,000 bushels.

Peaches—Cling stones show prospects of 90 per cent of full crop; 23,378,000 bushels of clings and freestones.

Pears—With reduction in pear blight, a per cent of 78 for the state as a whole is basis for a crop forecast of 227,000 tons, as compared with 190,000 tons in 1929.

Cherries—Harvest completed and production estimated at 18,500 tons as compared with 17,000 tons in 1929.

Plums—Condition of 85 per cent indicating total production of 71,000 tons.

Prunes—Condition of 78 with forecast of 234,000 tons as compared with 103,000 tons in 1929.

Apricots—On the basis of a condition of 58 per cent, a total production of 209,000 tons is forecast.

Grapes—Uniformly good outlook in all counties. State average is 88 for all classes. It is recognized that a very important acreage in grapes has been abandoned during the last year. Crop forecast: Wine, 434,000 tons; table, 349,000 tons; raisin, 1,235,000 tons.

Figs—Average for the state, 86 per cent of full crop. In the San Joaquin valley, where most of the figs are produced, the average is 87, Sacramento valley, 76, and Southern Counties, 91.

Olives—Condition of 78 as compared with 71 a year ago.

Oranges—Navel and Valencia show state average of 87, as compared with 70 a year ago.

Lemons—State average condition is 82, compared with 65 last year.

Almonds—Indications are for almond crop of between 11,000 and 12,000 tons based on average of 63 per cent.

Walnuts—On an average of 65 per cent, a production of 31,000 tons is estimated, compared with 39,000 tons in 1929. Condition in Southern Counties, with most of the producing areas is 64 per cent.

RELIABILITY ECONOMY GOOD PERFORMANCE

THE NEW FORD TUDOR SEDAN

YOU are buying proved performance when you buy a Ford. You know it has been built for many thousands of miles of satisfactory, economical service.

Letters from users in every part of the world show the value of the sound design of the car, good materials and accuracy in manufacturing. You sense a feeling of sincere pride in the oft-repeated phrase—"Let me tell you what my new Ford did."

Further tribute to the sturdiness, reliability and general all-round performance of the new Ford is shown in the repeated and growing purchases by government bureaus, by police departments, and by large industrial companies which keep careful day-by-day cost records. In most cases, the new Ford has been chosen only after exhaustive tests covering speed and power, safety, comfort, ease of control, oil and gas consumption, low yearly depreciation, and low cost of up-keep.

They have found, as you will find, that the Ford embodies every feature you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys
THE CHIEF must have wanted to remove some doubts last Friday night for he ordered every truck of the department out for practice. Quite naturally the First Aid crew manned the Emergency truck and it was discovered that the members of this squad can handle hose as capably as they handle bandages. The only slight mistake they made was when "Doc" Swanson wrapped the hose around Bob Babbitt's head. Bob complained of a headache and Joe mechanically wrapped it up for him. Speaking of Bob, it may be well to relate that he was passing the cigars around last Friday night, because he is the boastful father of another bouncing baby. H. A. Thew, another very prominent member of the First Aid bunch, very carefully protected his head. He feared that some of his kinsmen may make a mistake.

On the big truck, we had all the big noises such as the Chief, Assistant Chief Norris, Vernon Udell and all those high hatters (we mean white caps). Even Police Chief McMillan was among them. A great deal of theoretic maneuvers pertaining to fire fighting were talked of, but only actual sensible tactics were used. Last but not lessened was the Goat. On the Goat was the real show of the parade. Driving this famous Ford was Bob Newberry who whistles through his lips. (His front teeth are out for the present.) With him was Alvis Karger, Jim Heasley and Capt. Petzel. They were ordered to the canyon to try out the hose of the "Goat" and long after all other trucks were at work, this crew was seen flying up Baldwin Avenue. We are wondering if Bob doesn't know the direction to the Canyon.

Things seem to be stirring up in the canyon this summer. Jim Heasley has decorated the trees with waving flags for the big "Swim Week" and the recent hot spell has drawn many to the pool. Steve Petzel is parking cars in his parking lot, but not without some disturbance. Just recently four very pretty hikers entered Steve's lot and picked out a place to park unsuitable to Steve's fancy and they objected so strenuously to moving that Steve called out the whole police department and part of the fire brigade. We don't exactly know for certain why Steve wanted to detain the young ladies but quite a confusion was aroused when Chief McMillan and his entire force arrived. The chief agreed with Petzel that they were certainly worth holding, but he couldn't understand why a married man should be so anxious when the chief of police was a single man, so he took charge of the horrible hikers. Only the police chief knows how much they were fined.

Our meeting of last Friday went along its usual rough course. Fines and charges. The boys report progress on the building of the new truck and by all present appearances, it will be a truck well worth celebrating and here's hoping we do. The hour is late and the bones are aching so we'll call the Fire's Out.

Will Honor Disability Claims Now

War Veterans May Avail Themselves of New Legislation

All honorably discharged veterans of the World War who believe themselves entitled to the "disability allowance" provided by the World War Veterans Act as amended July 3, 1930, may file their claims through the nearest Red Cross chapter, according to an announcement received from Pacific branch headquarters at San Francisco. The first supply of application blanks has been hurriedly distributed to the 300 chapters in the Pacific Coast states in order that this service to veterans may begin without delay.

Many hundreds of veterans will be eligible to the new benefits. The Act as amended provides a monthly allowance ranging from $12 to $40, according to the degree of disability, to honorably discharged veterans of the World War who served more than 90 days and who are suffering from a 25 per cent or greater permanent disability not acquired in service and for which compensation has not been paid. No payment of this allowance shall be made prior to July 3, 1930, and no veteran shall be entitled to it unless he has been exempt from payment of a Federal income tax for one year preceding the filing of his application. No veteran can receive both compensation and disability allowance during the same period.

Any veteran wishing to file claim must be sure to take with him his honorable discharge or a certified copy of the same, to Red Cross headquarters, 26 West Central avenue, at which place full details can be obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Kortkamp and family have returned from a two week's trip to Yosemite and northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collins and son Marshall, of Huntington Park, have moved to this city, locating at 88 Victoria Lane. Mr. Collins headed the recent flood control project in Canyon Park.

WASHINGTON FILMS CONFORM TO WEATHER

Summer fare in motion pictures, as in food, should be light, and the Washington Theatre, Washington and Lake, Pasadena, had made an admirable choice of pictures for the coming week.

Ramon Navarro, never more ideally cast, appears in "Devil May Care," romantic feature with Dorothy Jordan in the chief supporting role on Sunday and Monday, July 20 and 21. Navarro sings a number of catchy songs in this picture, which has registered an instantaneous hit everywhere. Edward Everett Horton, who never fails to be funny, is on the same bill with "Trusting Wives," one of his latest comedies.

A double feature program, Norma Talmadge and Gilbert Roland in "New York Nights," and "Officer O'Brien," featuring William Boyd, Ernest Torrance, Dorothy Sebastian, and Clyde Cook, comes to the Washington theatre for one day only, on Tuesday, July 22.

"Paramount on Parade," glittering with the names of such stars as Maurice Chevalier, Clara Bow, George Bancroft, Clive Brook, Gary Cooper, Buddy Rogers, Mary Brian and Richard Arlen, is on the bill for Wednesday and Thursday, July 23 and 24. Al Jolson in "Mammy" is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, July 25 and 26. "Song of the Caballero," a Ken Maynard feature, will be shown at the Saturday matinee only.

CROOK STORY THAT IS REALLY DIFFERENT

Something "different" in the way of crook pictures is offered in "Good Intentions," the exciting Fox Movietone production starting a week's run tonight at the Fox Strand theatre, Pasadena. The story presents a clever group of international crooks, well-dressed and well poised, as the menace of the picture.

Edmund Lowe, as the leader of the group, encounters the obstacles that motivate the story when he decides to live down his past and go straight. His former associates provide the obstacles and his partial overcoming of them give rise to an unusually interesting screen plot. Marguerite Churchill, Regis Toomey,

ARCADIA BILLS BIG EXTRAVAGANZA FILM

Over a score of stars—a dozen peppy, different, clever acts—color and class—that's "Paramount on Parade," the all-talking, all-singing, all-dancing extravaganza of the year.

Fans will have an opportunity to take in this great feature at the Theatre Arcadia on Sunday and Monday, July 20 and 21. This picture is only one of the many film treats to be dished up during the summer season by Managers Miller and Camlin of the local theatre.

Conrad Nagel and Lila Lee in "Second Wife" come to the Arcadia on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 22 and 23. Adding to the attractiveness of this bill are two talking comedies, "Let Me Explain," and "Duke of Dublin."

A sure-fire hit with every age and class is Maurice Chevalier's latest picture "The Big Pond," coming to this theatre on next Thursday and Friday, July 24 and 25.

Coming soon to the Arcadia are such attractions as Lon Chaney in the talkie version of his former success, "The Unholy Three," "The Shadow of the Law," with William Powell; Zane Grey's "The Border Legion"; "Journey's End," and "The Big House."

Gladys Boehmer of Alta Vista Drive, left the Canyon Park house she built with her own hands long enough to take a vacation as Laguna Beach this week.

Owen Davis Jr., and Hale Hamilton are the other featured players.

Laurel and Hardy in "The Brats" are a scream. Fox Movietone News completes the bill.

CHANEY APPEARS AS WOMAN IN THIS FILM

Imitating a woman's voice is comparatively easy, but playing a woman on the screen is nevertheless a difficult task, according to Lon Chaney, who performs this feat in "The Unholy Three," his first talking picture, which will be shown for a week beginning last night at the Fox Colorado theatre.

In this production he hides from the police in the disguise of an old woman. "The hardest thing is to learn how to walk like a woman and keep one's shoulders from swinging, and the cultivation of the gestures and mannerisms of the character," says Chaney. He uses five voices in the new mystery thriller, in which Lila Lee, Elliott Nugent, Harry Earles, Ivan Linow, Clarence Burton and others appear.

On the stage will be the world premier of Fanchon & Marco's "Wild and Woolly" Idea, featuring a splendid cast in novel numbers. There will be many delightful surprises for you in this latest and best revue. The Fox Colorado Band will present the musical accompaniment and Fox Movietone News will offer current events of special interest.

The total valuation of building permits issued in Los Angeles during the first of the year are approximately $40,000,000.

"What's in a name?" quoth the servant. "Nothing," replies Manuel Labor, 27, who landed in the city jail at San Francisco, the other day, charged with vagrancy.

To keep a prospective bride waiting at the church is a greater crime than speeding down the highway, observed Judge John E. Springer of Palo Alto, when he released Charles F. Prael, the bridegroom.

Los Angeles is to spend $30,000,000 in construction and improving nine major traffic arteries. Houses are now being torn down, and old landmarks destroyed in preparation for the heaviest improvement schedule in the city's history.

Taken off the bumpers of a freight train in the outskirts of Los Angeles, Edward Pattes, aged 19, and Adele Kyker, 16-year old high school girl, said they were eloping. They hoped to "beat" it East and be married. They had $16.60 between them.

Following announcement of the big oil companies and gas station chains that they would go back to standard prices, the gasoline price cutting war practically ended last Monday, though a few independent dealers continued to sell at one or two cents below the standard price of 19 1/2 cents.

According to Herbert U. Nelson, executive secretary of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, a survey has disclosed that there is a billion dollars in the United States that may be borrowed for home construction, and that, of that sum, $28,000,000 is in Los Angeles County.

In the opinion of 29 southland builders, newspaper advertising is the most effective means of selling homes. Incidentally, transfers of property in the six major communities of the metropolitan area outside of Los Angeles reached a total of 10,732 for the first half of the year and financing operations have involved $45,394,044 during that period.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT LEADERS HOLD EDGES; PLAY IS PROLONGED

The favorites are still registering consistently in the local tennis tournament. The present wave of hot weather has caused Emile Smith, president of the Tennis Club, to announce that the tournament will end the first week in August instead of the last week of this month.

The schedule for remaining matches of the tournament follows: Men's singles matches—Wayne Perry vs. Curran Adams, Randolph Wood vs. Don Blanke, Perry vs. Wolfgang Reitherman, Wood vs. Adams, and Emile Smith vs. Harry Draman.

Harry Draman in the only singles match of the past week defeated Don Blanke 6-4, 6-1. As the result of winning this match Draman advanced into the quarter final round.

The men's doubles team of Reitherman and Adams will meet Perry and Blanke for the privilege of playing Smith and Wood in the finals.

In the mixed doubles division the team of Marie Jenkins and Wayne Perry will do battle with Bernice Roe and E. Dally. The winner of this match will share the final bracket with Wilma Morrow and Emile Smith.

Thatcher Opens Downey Branch

Will M. Thatcher, one of the pioneer settlers of Downey and known throughout the large territory surrounding that prosperous and rapidly growing section between Long Beach and Los Angeles, is announced this week as manager of a Downey branch headquarters for the campaign of Hugh A. Thatcher, candidate for supervisor of Los Angeles county from the first district.

Mr. Ardis knew Hugh A. Thatcher when Downey was the only town in that whole territory. Now a half dozen other cities are close to Downey, namely: Artesia, Clearwater, Norwalk, Hynes and Bellflower.

The Downey headquarters were opened Monday by Mr. Ardis, acting for Mr. Thatcher.

Thatcher visited Downey after addressing the Chamber of Commerce of Maywood at an enthusiastic luncheon meeting—adv.

Here's a Sierra Madrean Who's Anxious to Talk About His New FORD!

Lake Hopatcong, New Jersey
July 7, 1930

Dear Mr. Steinberger:

Here we are, and what a swell car! I made the trip across in 8 1/2 days, and no trouble except four flat tires. You surely sold me a sweet bus!

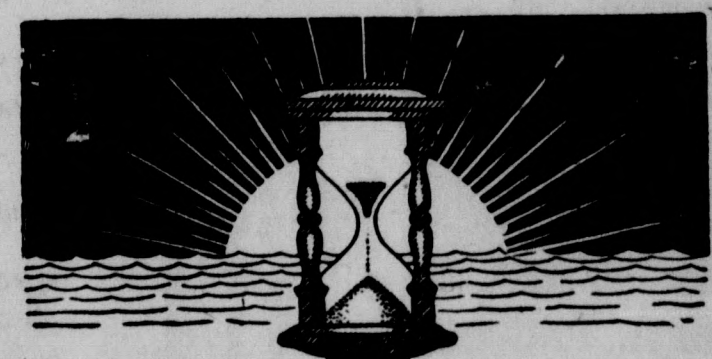

I have been staying here for a time at my Uncle Louis Jackson's summer place. You remember him? He was out there last year.

Best wishes,

BOB ACKLEY.

BALLOT LAW

feel that all of the county officials should not be chosen in one year. Many organizations throughout the State will undoubtedly follow the lead taken by civic bodies in this and San Francisco counties and appoint committees to make investigations and recommendations to the next Assembly. Out of these may come a solution to the primary system.

But the problem of the voter in the general election will be even more difficult, for referendums and constitutional amendments must be dealt with. There are already 21 questions that will be found on the ballot in the general election this year. Many of them are intricate and of vital importance to the people and their government. And there may be other questions, such as daylight savings to be decided.

Titles Mean Nothing

These questions will come before the elector in the voting booth only under brief titles that often give no clear or very little idea of the importance of the question to be decided, much less of the question itself. Many of them actually require careful study of the subject matter of the proposals if an intelligent decision is to be reached by the citizen. It is asserted that a majority of the voters go to the polls without so much as an idea of the number of questions to be decided, much less the merits of more than one or two of them.

And in addition to casting his ballot for or against matters of such moment, often involving huge expenditures and providing increases in the bonded debt, the elector must vote for many candidates as well, though he has never heard the names of some of them.

Of the approximately 1200 candidates to be voted upon in Los line. He has been assisted by Colin Hill and Vincent Fleming.

The success of the dances has been largely contributed to the music by the Moonlight Melody Boys, the personnel of which is Hans Seifert, leader, violin and string bass; Don Parker, piano; Dutch Larsen, drums; and Bob Walker, saxophone and clarinet.

An innovation in future dances will be the introduction of waltzes, two-steps, Paul Jones, fox trots and square dances, with a view to giving the spotlight to those not familiar with the modern steps.

Another dance is scheduled for this evening from 8:30 to 11:30. The dances will be continued as long as they fill a definite need in the social life of the community, according to Miss Cadmus.

Future entertainments will be sponsored by the Volunteer Firemen, the Red Cross and the Canyon Park Improvement Association.

A play siutable for out-of-door production will be presented at some time during the summer by the Sierra Madre Community Players.

THE TORCH LITE PERADE

OMRADES and ladies, "when in the course of human events," it becomes necessary to make certain governmental changes, for the better. We are now facing the need for one of these changes in the affairs of our state government which can only be brot about by having the proper man in the proper place, placed there by an overwhelming majority at the polls. We are particularly fortunate in having such a man to fill the job of Assemblyman from the 53rd district, Lester K. Layton. Those of you favoring this nomination, will vote with the usual sign; those opposed — no. The I's have it, there being no opposition. Remember, the stream runs swiftly and we are going to do some polling to get our comrade thru the rapids August 26.

Now Comrads, we need workers at the polls on that day. How many will volunteer? The open air Taxi company of Sierra Madre, owned and operated by Lass and Taylor, these two public spirited Comrades volunteer their Jitney, provided Ezra will keep them supplied with free root beer and gasoline. Handy Andy will furnish his hay rack and plenty of bird seed. Be sure the tire is not flat this time, Handy.

So far so good; next week we will announce further needs and developments of the Layton campaign.

Favorite Dishes of Sierra Madreans

MRS. ART UDELL'S recipes for raspberry and currant jelly and for a red devil's food cake are great favorites with many Sierra Madreans who have tried them and they are offered herewith. This is the jelly recipe:

Wash an equal quantity of raspberries and currants. Boil until soft. Strain. Add a cup of sugar to each cup of juice. Boil until it thickens. Pour into jelly glasses. Cover with melted paraffin when cool.

And this is the red devil's food cake:

Ingredients: $\frac{1}{4}$ cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, $\frac{1}{2}$ cups flour, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons baking powder, $\frac{1}{2}$ teasp. salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sour milk, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup boiling water, 2 squares of bitter chocolate, shaved fine, or 3 tablespoons cocoa, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoonful vanilla.

Procedure: Cream shortening and sugar. Add well beaten eggs. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add alternately with the sour milk to the butter mixture. Melt chocolate over boiling water. Pour boiling water into melted chocolate or to cocoa, if used, and add soda. Add to rest of mixture. Stir well.

Uncooked Icing: Add one tablespoon melted butter to cups powdered sugar. Add just enough hot milk to make a smooth paste. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla. Spread with knife dipped in hot water.

FAVORITE DISH OF KING ALFONSO IS A FINE FRUIT SALAD

King Alfonso, of Spain, has a favorite dish—a fruit salad. Its base is cold sliced chicken, resting on lemon-yellow hearts of lettuce and criss-crossed by ribbons of pimiento, or sweet red pepper. Set carefully over chicken and lettuce is a mold of fruit salad—sliced oranges, great green Malaga grapes, thin slices of pineapple—all held suspended in a chilled jelly of fruit juices.

Along the Paths of Yesterday

A History of Sierra Madre from the files of The NEWS.

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1907—

Sierra Madre has just been made a separate voting district through the efforts of City Trustee Hosmer, Arcadia being separated from it.

The school trustees have elected the following teachers for the next school year: W. W. Coates, principal; Miss Alma McCobb, Miss L. Elston Glenn and Miss Henrietta Gifford.

The mountains and canyons of Sierra Madre are alive with vacationists, all the camps being crowded and the new trolley line is given credit for adding to the popularity of local resorts.

FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1911—

Signa Olson and Roy Edwards were married by Rev. J. M. Campbell on Wednesday.

There is an abundant water supply this year, the mountains yielding so bountifully that it was not necessary to start pumping from the basin here and in Monrovia until about this time.

FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1916—

An ample water supply enabled the City Trustees to reduce the water rate until further notice, or for a month.

Phil Carter, Gale Williams, Roy Bowen and Harry Hawkshurst have just returned from a fishing trip to Big Bear Lake with more than 50 pounds of fish.

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1921—

The slate of candidates arranged by the nominating committee was unanimously chosen at Monday's Chamber of Commerce meeting and E. D. Topping is the new president.

S. R. G. Twycross has been restored to his position as local agent of the Santa Fe, it having been abolished during the World War.

FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1926—

Amanda Wilhelm and Robert E. Freeland were married in the Little Church of Flowers in Glendale, Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Anita Baldwin has consented to the opening of a road through the Baldwin ranch provided she is given a sufficient guarantee that there will be no other road for 50 years.

George B. Morgridge and children, Howard and Elizabeth, Mrs. L. M. Rice, Mrs. Donald Ashmore and children, Donald and May, and Mrs. Hortense Hill, are attending a convention held in Asilomar, Calif. The party left on Monday to be gone about two weeks.

A Florida Tribute to the California Fruit Growers Exchange

THE following statement was made recently by the Florida Citrus Exchange in the "Florida Grower", mouthpiece of the Florida citrus industry:

"California has unified marketing in that the growers' cooperative organization controls approximately 75 per cent of the citrus output. . . Florida has lacked unification in marketing, her growers' cooperative handling only about 33 per cent of the citrus crop, and nearly 150 outside concerns competing with each other in selling the other 67 per cent.

"During the 1928-29 season, California shipped 88,010 carloads of citrus, sold f.o.b. for $118,874,102. Florida shipped 62,877 cars, sold f.o.b. for $54,844,805. FORTY PER CENT MORE FRUIT RETURNED CALIFORNIA GROWERS 116 PER CENT MORE MONEY.

"Unified citrus marketing will do relatively as much for Florida as it has for California. That is why the Federal Farm Board recommends it, why leading grower-shipper groups have merged into the Florida Citrus Exchange to help bring it about and why bankers, doctors, lawyers, manufacturers, merchants and tradesmen are asked to assist growers in arranging their affairs so they may join the Exchange."

A striking testimonial to the efficiency and effectiveness of the California Fruit Growers Exchange in a year of bumper production by both states! Yet not surprising when we stop to realize the tremendous difference between orderly, systematic marketing, conducted by one capable agency having every vital piece of market information in hand. . . and the comparatively less well organized Florida industry.

The facts are to be expected. . . that Exchange members consistently average higher returns and operate at lower selling cost than any other citrus sales agency. And these benefits can be still more greatly increased as more California growers come into the Exchange.

Florida growers are coming to the same conclusion that the 12,000 California Fruit Growers Exchange members have already reached, and as more California growers are doing every year. For complete information about the California Fruit Growers Exchange, talk to the manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association. Or for further information, write now to Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C", Los Angeles.

Oranges Sunkist Lemons Grapefruit

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS: The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of more than 12,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing over 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual cost of operation, are returned to growers. Applications are received through all the Exchange's 210 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges, or at the central office in Los Angeles.

In Your Garden--Now

What To Plant — What To Do

BY JESSIE WARD RUSSELL
Landscape Gardener

CONTROLLING SUMMER GARDEN PESTS

ANTS—First of the garden pests I will mention the ants as they must be controlled first before you can rid your garden of all other pests. It seems as if the ants were out to see how much mischief they could do in the garden by spreading the bugs from plant to plant. They carry young scales, mealy-bugs and aphids, from infested plants to clean ones. The ants themselves do not eat the plants but do the damage by spreading the pests. So control the ants in your garden first of all. For your convenience you can buy sets of ant poison with the jars to put it in to set around the garden. The jars should be taken up and cleaned and refilled about once a month.

APHIS OR PLANT-LICE—There soft green, red or brown bugs multiply very rapidly once they appear on the foliage. They suck the juices from the leaves and cause them to blight and curl. They are easily controlled by the use of tobacco extracts. For spraying, use "Black Leaf 40" or dust with "Nico Dust."

RED SPIDERS—These very minute, greenish yellow to rusty red insects are found on the under side of the foliage. They will attack weak plants first. The leaves will look rusty and yellow and will drop. Violets, sweet-peas, beans, chrysanthemums, dahlias and zinnias are subject to attack. Use plenty of water. Red-spiders do not like water a bit. Powdered sulphur dusted over the plants, or "Volck" used as a spray, six level tablespoons-ful to one gallon of water. Do not use both sulphur and Volck at the same time for it will seriously burn the plants if you do.

THRIPS—Very small winged insects, rather dark colored. Thrips injure the foliage by sucking up the plant juices while feeding and cause the killing or distortion of the flower buds and scarring of the trees. Control by using an oil emulsion such as "Volck" mixed with "Black Leaf 40" and repeat as first application will not get them all nor will it kill the eggs.

MEALY-BUGS—These are not so often found in the garden but when they do come they should be attended to at once for they are really very serious if allowed to spread. Ants just love to carry the young mealy-bugs from plant to plant, that is why they spread so rapidly. The mealy-bug itself does not travel far although it does possess plenty of legs. They are a sociable creature and congregate together, for you will most always find them in masses about the blossoms or foliage of the plant they are on, literally smothering it to death. The mealy-bug is white and fuzzy and looks as if it were covered with powder. When full grown it is about the size of the "Lady Bug." Its egg masses are covered with a white cottony looking substance. Water will do a lot towards controlling the mealy-bug. If you wash the plants with a strong spray directed against the infested parts it will knock off many of the bugs and break up the egg masses. However it will not get them all as the young bugs will cling to the under parts of the leaves. After the plants have had several washings spray them thoroughly with "Volck," using about six level tablespoons to one gallon of water. We have tried many sprays for mealy-bug but Volck is the only spray that we have had real success with.

SCALE INSECTS—Some trees like the Citrus trees become infested with the scale insects. A heavy oil-emulsion will kill them. Spray with "Volck" using about six to eight level tablespoons-ful to one gallon of water.

CATERPILLARS—Found on plants such as Buddleia and Pentstemon can be controlled by using a strong solution of "Black Leaf 40," two tablespoon-ful to one gallon of water, or spray with Arsenate of Lead using three to four heaping tablespoons-ful of Arsenate of Lead to one gallon of water.

SNAILS, SLUGS AND CUT-WORMS—These are best controlled by using a poison bait. Snailor is a convenient bait to use. Scatter about the garden near masses of foliage where the snails are most likely to be hiding during the daytime.

AVOCADO GROWERS MAY PROFIT BY THIS

The Agricultural Extension Service has recently issued circular No. 43, "The California Avocado Industry" by Professor Robert W. Hodgson. The circular discusses the avocado districts, climatic requirements, soils, propagation, growing of seedlings, and other related subjects. Numerous pictures help to illustrate the material in an excellent manner. The circular also presents a discussion of avocado varieties for various districts, conditions and data on cost of establishing the orchard, orchard maintenance costs, marketing costs and yields. In summarizing the publication, Professor Hodgson presents the present and future outlook for the industry.

This publication may be obtained from the Farm Advisor's office, 230 Court street, Los Angeles.

PEST CONTROL COST CITRUS GROWERS A HUGE SUM LAST YEAR

of the relative value of oil sprays and fumigation and their effect on citrus production is one of the features of the annual report of the Exchange pest control bureau, by R. S. Woglum, entomologist of the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

This handbook on citrus pest control, which has been mailed to all Exchange members and associations, contains a resume of results in insect control during the past year. The different citrus localities of California are discussed and methods of controlling insect pests in these districts are recommended for the coming season.

The report discloses that over 150,000 acres of citrus groves were sprayed, fumigated or dusted during 1929. It is estimated that these protective operations cost the California citrus industry in 1929, between four and five million dollars.

FILIPINO PROBLEM WILL COME BEFORE LEGION CONVENTION

State Adjutant James K. Fisk, of the American Legion, declared that one of the big problems to be discussed by the Legionnaires representing 400 posts at the annual State convention to be held at Sacramento, August 18 to 20, will be that of the Filipino immigration problem.

"Filipinos are arriving in California at the rate of 300 to 500 a month and adding daily to the unemployment problem, not only among the veterans but among all others out of work and we demand that something be done to meet the situation which is confronting us," Adjutant Fisk, a member of the California Joint Immigration Committee, declares.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming the habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderly at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

Start Quiz Into Charges Of Big Graft

Jury Investigates Alleged $800,000 Theft In San Gabriel Dam

The grand jury is investigating charges that $800,000 of the $3,500,000 of the public funds that were wasted in the $25,000,000 San Gabriel dam project at Azusa went to a grafter, or grafters.

The specific charge is that some one connected with the engineering of the Jonah dam charged the public for the excavation of 270,000 cubic yards of earth that lay as nature left it and never saw a steam shovel and that in consequence $800,000 of the good money of the taxpayers of Los Angeles county went into the pockets of dishonest persons for work never performed except in the falsification of records.

Before the grand jury went on a vacation during the hot weather it went deeply into the matter, engaged engineers to check up the work done on the abandoned dam and audit the accounts; then it appointed a committee of five of its members to follow up the leads it had developed. This committee is composed of Thomas O'Neill, chairman; A. W. Townsend, secretary; H. J. Carr, C. S. Thompson, and I. Morris.

Engineers alleged before the grand jury that the county had paid for the excavation of 770,000 cubic yards of earth and that maps and affidavits upon which these payments were based falsely alleged the removal of 270,000 cubic yards in excess of the actual work performed.

A. F. Barnard, president of the board of directors of the Los Angeles section of the American Society of Civil Engineers, wrote the grand jury offering the assistance of himself and his organization in running down the alleged theft, announcing that the whole engineering profession is impugned by the charges.

After the county supervisors spent $3,500,000 of the $25,000,000 allotted for the San Gabriel dam only to find that a high dam at the place selected would be absolutely unsafe, the Board of Supervisors contemplated going ahead with the construction of three smaller dams to accomplish the same purpose as the originally proposed single high one. Two of the three sites for the smaller dams suggested were above and one below the canyon fork.

Then the supervisors thought better of the matter. They decided to delay matters and iron out some difficulties that it was felt would be sure to bring about litigation that might result in another fiasco. The matter is now at a standstill—again.

During the meeting there was a discussion as to the feasibility of holding a session of the justice court in Sierra Madre once a week for the adjustment of small claims that may come before it, thus obviating the necessity of numerous trips by litigants to and from the established court of the justice.

It was found that permission of the County Board of Supervisors would be necessary to validate proceedings instituted in the court under such circumstances, but little difficulty was anticipated in securing authority from the Supervisors for the innovation. Mr. McEachern said that in the event of his nomination and election he would be pleased to hold a weekly court here.

Death Claims Mrs. Rec Stanbery Who Came Here In 1913

Mrs. Rec Stanbery, a resident of this city for the past 17 years, passed away at her home at 108 North Baldwin on Monday after an illness of two years.

This spring Mr. and Mrs. Stanbery made their annual fishing trip in the North and stopped at the home of a life-long friend at Fir Brook Ranch, Dayton, Oregon. There Mrs. Stanbery was taken seriously ill and had to be removed to a hospital. Later she was brought to her home in this city.

Her faith at the approach of death was unflinching. On Sunday, after repeating the 23rd Psalm she observed to those near to her "That was all meant for me!"

Emma Lawrence Stanbery was born in Wisconsin on March 7, 1856. When she was still a child her family moved to Charles City, Iowa. She married Rec Stanbery of Mason City, on October 18, 1878, and with her husband, a pioneer newspaper man, went to Mitchell, South Dakota. Later they returned to Mason City and in 1913 came to Sierra Madre to make their home.

Mrs. Stanbery is survived by her husband and by a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Wallace, Idaho.

Funeral services for the deceased were conducted by Rev. William Duncan Ogg of Bethany church at the Grant undertaking parlors at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon. Burial followed in the Mausoleum at Mountain View.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farman are expected to arrive in this city tomorrow, called here by Mrs. Stanbery's death. Mrs. Farman is a sister of Mr. Stanbery.

KANSAS CITY FAMILY TO MAKE HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brandimore and daughter, Miss Marianne Brandimore, are recent arrivals at Bella Vista Terrace. This is their first visit to Sierra Madre and already the charms of this community have captivated the family. M. Brandimore owned for many years a large printing and office furniture plant in Kansas City and 40 years ago traveled the Pacific Coast in the interest of his business.

A baby girl weighing seven and a half pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Ward Jr. Sunday morning, July 13th. Mother and baby are doing well.

Miss Ruth Murphy of Englewood, N. J., who has been spending the past two months visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Murphy of 1 Montecito Court, left Thursday for San Diego where she will visit her sister and brother-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. R. W. Abbott. As an alumnus of Redlands University, Miss Murphy has attended many social affairs given in her honor.

BETTYE BUTSCH INJURED IN FOOTHILL ACCIDENT

Miss Bettye Butsch of 129 N. Michigan avenue, Pasadena, formerly of this city, met with a painful accident on Foothill boulevard July 9, when the car in which she was riding, driven by her sister, Peggye Butsch, swerved to avoid a car coming out of a dark side street and ran head-on into a tree.

Bettye Butsch was taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital with two ribs fractured and the left knee badly lacerated. The other occupants of the car were Peggye Butsch, Oscar Keiser of 2314 Burnside Avenue, Los Angeles, and Frank Dyer of 2626 Dunsmuir avenue, Los Angeles.
